My dear Mr. Emerick,

I thought that it may be better if I explain a little further than I did in my letter to you the other day why the list of some of the Leesburg patrons who wished to have Miss Metzger replaced in the department of Latin did not go in to you before. Last fall when we found Miss Metzger had been removed from that department there was perfect (?) consternation among many of us, but we realized nothing could be done about it until the next election of teachers. Some months ago I asked Stilson Hall what we should do about putting the matter of her reinstatement before your board. I went in to see Mr. Carr, one of that advisory board. I understood from him that he was entirely with us in the desire to have Miss Metzger restored to the department of Latin, and would do all in his power to lay the matter before your board. I then went to Mr. Littlejohn, the second member of the advisory board. By the way, Mr. Carr thought it might be well to have the list of names of those who wished this, to put before your board. Mr. Littlejohn talked as though he was entirely in favor of restoring her to the Latin department, and urged me not go around with a paper to be signed by those who wished Miss Metzger in the Latin, but to leave the matter in their hands, that he would let me know if he thought having the list would be a good thing. I so reported to more of the patrons, and I feel very badly, because had it not been for this the wishes of a large group of the patrons would have been made known to you before the election came up. One member of the advisory board I did not approach on the subject, understanding that she was thought to be, to say the least, uninterested in the matter. When I saw in the paper no mention of Miss Metzger I went at once to Mr. Carr and I understand if I am not mistaken that the board recommended Miss Stickley for the Latin, also recommending Miss Metzger for what I do not know. I know how just and fair you have always proved yourself in listening to the wishes of the patrons, and in my real distress over this matter feeling I had failed those who thought I would place this before you I could think of nothing but to send you a group of representative names. Many more would place themselves on record I know could I see then but I know you understand that. Now, as to Miss Stickley--I do not consider her a good teacher and a good many more do not. She does not drill, and you will find that I am not mistaken when you see those who have failed in her classes, and I am by far from being alone in my opinion of her as a teacher. Mr. Carr knew all this--so I think did the other members I talked to. In my opinion had I no child for whom I wished Miss Metzger's drill, I should feel that to lose Miss Metzger from the department of Latin would be a great detriment to our school.

Most cordially yours: /s/ Rib(?) Martin

Dear Mr. Emerick:-

I thank you for yours of the 6th, with enclosure, received during my absence from the bank.

As stated in the meeting we held a few days ago I believe with Miss Metzger satisfied with the work you and she have agreed upon for her to have, and by keeping Miss Stickley in the school we will have a better faculty than we might have otherwise, and if you go ahead and decide to do as outlined then, I am sure you will have the backing of our Board here in Leesburg, as we know it is impossible to satisfy everybody.

Yours very truly,

/s/ Josephus Carr
