

Date	Title/Subject	Publication	Summary	Subjects	Condition/Notes
① 08/11/1916	The Reformed Church at Lovettsville, VA; agriculture course at Lincoln High	The Loudoun Mirror	1. Lovettsville Reformed Church - The first meeting house was a log structure, which was used for church services and a schoolhouse until 1810 2. agriculture course being taught at Lincoln High during the 1916-17 school year	Lovettsville Reformed Church; Lincoln High School	poor - paper is brittle, flaking, and torn
2 1918	high school in the Jefferson District		in 1918 the school board moved to discontinue high school in the Jefferson District due to lack of funds, 2 articles discuss raising funds to keep the high school open	Jefferson Distict high school	poor - paper is brittle, torn
3 1920	various topics		Folder contains brief articles on various topics including the following: school event announcements and news, Loudoun County School Fair schedule (4/20/1920), and teacher shortages in the U.S.	school events, U.S. teacher shortage	good
4 1920s	various topics	The Loudoun Times	folder contains brief articles about the following subjects: 1. 4/22/1920 Lucketts School term will be for 9 months, while all other white schools will have an 8 month term. All high school students attending Lucketts will pay $2.00/month for tuition 2. 8/5/1920 recap of July school board meeting - enrollment in high school increasing, resolution to allow women to serve on the school board fails to pass 3. 4/28/1921 School Fair schedule of events 4. 7/28/1921 John R. Hutchison resigns as school trustee; 5. 4/23/1920Harris Hart, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, wants to increase teacher pay in Virginia 6. 4/22/1920 School budget for the 1920-21 school year -- need to raise teacher salaries in order to hire well-qualified teachers	Lucketts School; teacher pay	good - photocopies
5 11/27/1924	Criticism of School Officials	Loudoun Times-Mirror	editorial - general complaint about Loudoun school officials (does not provide details)	school officials	fair
6 04/30/1931	Supervisors Turn Thumbs Down on School Tax Plea	Loudoun Times-Mirror	school authorities asking for tax increase to support schools - the measure did not pass	financial	fair

7	06/1931		Virginia Journal of Education	p. 415 - 13 principles for educating the rural population, article argues that rural schools should offer children the same quality of education found in urban schools; p. 425 - "Public Schools Faced with Major Problems" problems are finances, teacher certification, student attendance, transportation, and educating the "physically and mentally handicapped"	rural education, problems in public schools
8	02/25/1932	School Board Requests Bids	Loudoun Times-Mirror	school board selling bonds to raise funds for schools	financial
9	02/10/1938	addition added to existing school	Loudoun Times-Mirror	article discusses an addition to be built onto an existing school (Leesburg)	schools	poor - paper is brittle, torn
10	09/7/1939	first day of the new school year in Loudoun County; Womeldorph starts 20th school term in Lovettsville	Loudoun Times-Mirror	1. Eleven new teachers in Loudoun County, 4000 students enrolled -- 3500 white and 500 colored 2. L.A. Womeldorph begins his 20th year at Lovettsville High, he has served as principal of Lovettsville for 19 years	Lovettsville High; school enrollment in Loudoun County	poor - paper is brittle, torn
10	09/7/1939	Instruction Must Meet Need of Times	Loudoun Times-Mirror	4 articles written by Loudoun County school officials regarding character, values, and responsibilities of Loudoun County schools	education, curriculum	fair
11	1931 - 1941	teacher salaries	various	folder contains articles regarding teacher salaries in Virginia and in Loudoun County - the articles suggest there was support for increasing teacher pay; in the late 1940s, Loudoun County teacher pay remained low	teacher salaries	fair
12	04/12/1945	Supervisors Ban Levy	Loudoun Times-Mirror	Supervisors vote against tax increase	financial	fair
13	04/10/1947	Lincoln Grade School/music	unknown	clipping - 3 photos of Lincoln Grade School students participating in music activities, music instruction begins in the first grade and continues through each grade level, school is without auditorium - instruction takes place in the classroom	Lincoln School, music instruction	fair condition
14	04/25/1950	Loudoun Gets Budget of $700,000	The Washington Post	bulk of budget will go towards teacher salaries	budget, financial	photocopy
15	1951	Campaigns Triumphant: {	National School Service Institute	booklet offer tips and suggestions for how to run campaigns	financial	good

16	04/23/1951	Loudoun School Suit Dismissed by Court; Court Asked to Block Funds for School Site	The Evening Star	an injunction to prevent the payment for the site selected for a new high school was filed by Purcellville residents. The suit was dismissed.	school site	fair
17	11/19/1953	School hiring policies in Loudoun; Arcola School crowding; Mountain Gap School Will be Preserved; construction of Loudoun County High School	Loudoun Times-Mirror	1. Shenandoah County Circuit Court rules that relatives of school board members cannot be hired -- Emerick announces that this court decision will not apply in Loudoun. 2. Arcola School is over crowded - 225 students were enrolled and only 6 teachers were teaching 7 grades 3. Mountain Gap, the last one room white schoolhouse, was closed by the school board in the summer of 1953. The building will be kept as a memorial "to a way of life and a way of teaching that has passed on in Loudoun." 4. photo of school site and short article about the construction of Loudoun County High School	Mountain Gap; Arcola; school hiring policies; Loudoun County High School	poor - paper is brittle, flaking, and torn
18	12/8/1954	Localities Must Earn State Aid; Virginia May Reduce School Funds Unless Localities Give More	Richmond Times-Dispatch	This folder contains articles relating to school funding in 1954. In the state, school populations are increasing due to high birth rate after WWII and Supreme Court segregation decision. The State of Virginia cannot afford to provide aid to schools and counties are called upon to financially support their schools. State aid is only given when counties have made the effort to raise funds and are unsuccessful. Loudoun County failed to meet minimum education and salary funds for the 1953-54 school year, along with 3 other counties and 4 cities. Loudoun County is called out in the article for having the ability to raise funds but not putting forth the effort.	financial	fair
19	1955	Annual State-Wide Conferences	Elementary Education News (newsletter)	outlines the plans for the annual state-wide teaching conferences, including dates, hotels, and schedule of meetings	state-wide conference	good

20	02/21/1956	various topics	The Blue Ridge Herald	1. debate about whether or not to extend high school schedules from 5 to 6 periods daily, school board votes to keep 5 periods 2. PTA examines history of high school studies and discusses changes in high school programs over the past 25 years, including academics and extracurricular activities 3. photo of O.L. Emerick with school trustees	high school schedule, high school programs
		paper contains articles on various subjects: FFA, school budget, Loudoun County teachers, Aldie School		pg. 6 - photos and short articles regarding the Loudoun County chapter of Future Farmers of America (FFA), FFA training started in Lincoln high school in 1918, other schools with FFA programs include Loudoun, Lovettsville, Ashburn, Leesburg, Aldie; pg. 8 - School Budget - article states that the county supervisors will meet on March 5 to discuss the school budget for the upcoming school year, Virginia schools stand 41st in the nation and money is needed; pg. 8 - on March 5 at Loudoun High School O.L. Emerick will moderate a panel discussion regarding how to keep teachers in Loudoun County (seems as if there was a problem keeping teachers in the county); pg. 8 - letter to the editor regarding the Aldie school bus - letter does not provide details, but likely that the bus was overcrowded and possibly in poor condition
21	02/23/1956	Bus	The Blue Ridge Herald		FFA, teachers, school budget, Aldie school bus	fair to poor condition - yellowing, small tears
22	03/8/1956	Loudoun County Budget	Loudoun Times-Mirror	synopsis of the school budget for 1956-57	financial
				The Loudoun County Board of Supervisors voted to deny funds to the public school system if integration is ordered in the county	integration	photocopy
23	08/7/1956	school integration	The Washington Post	This section of the Loudoun-Times Mirror is primarily devoted to the Kennedys' home Middleburg and addresses how their presence will affect the area. I found a mention of Caroline Kennedy possibly attending kindergarten in the Middleburg area. I did not find any articles pertaining to education or schools.	President & Mrs. Kennedy, Glen Ora, Middleburg	poor - paper is brittle, flaking, and torn
24	01/19/1961	Kennedys in Middleburg	Loudoun Times-Mirror
		Modern Math for Puzzled Parents		articles discuss current strategies for teaching math	curriculum	good
25	1966		The Evening Star

26	1960s	various topics	unknown	photocopies of clippings on various subjects -- daylight savings time changes school hours; student marijuana ring uncovered in Loudoun; arrests made in connection with vandalism at Loudoun County High School, J. Lupton Simpson obituary; O.L. Emerick obituary		photocopy
27	02/10/1977	Memories of Charlotte Noland, Founder of Foxcroft	Loudoun Times-Mirror	article written by Eugene Scheel, recounts the life of CHN and traces the history of the founding of Foxcroft School	Foxcroft School, Charlotte Noland	fair condition
28	undated	1 Mr. Emerick's File		folder contains memorandums, correspondence, and clippings, primarily related to teacher shortages and teacher salaries. Also included are clippings regarding Emerick's re-election as Superintendent in 1953	teachers, salaries	ranges from good to poor
29	undated	Road in Middleburg	unknown	clipping of picture of building a road in Middleburg		fair
30	undated	Loudoun Citizens Rally In School Funds Fight	unknown	short article announcing a meeting of Loudoun Co. residents in support of funds for school construction and repairs	financial, school buildings	fair

⊕ Box also contains 2 newspapers (1899 & 1905) - could not find articles pertaining to education

2 newspapers (2005 & 2016) regarding Edwin Washington Project